

3.101 inconvenient (adj)
not easy to cope with άβολος

Working in the center of town is inconvenient as there is nowhere to park my car.

• inconvenience (n), convenient (ant)

3.102 install (v)

fit

εγκαθιστώ

We had a new air conditioning unit installed in the bedroom.

• installation (n)

READING: VOCABULARY, Questions 61-74

3.103 consider (v)

think about

σκέφτομαι

He's considering moving to New York but he hasn't decided yet.

• consideration (n), considerate (adj)

3.104 except (v)

not include

εξαιρώ

He was excepted from gym because he had a bad cold.

• exception (n)

3.105 let out (phr v)

make (a noise)

βγάζω (κραυγή, γέλιο κλπ)

She let out a small laugh when she saw her friend's baggy trousers.

3.106 a sigh of relief (phr)

a noise a person makes when sth is not a problem as expected

στεναγμός ανακούφισης

I thought the mail was a bill, and let out a sigh of relief when I saw that it wasn't.

3.107 intent (n)

sth you mean to do

πρόθεση

His intent was to buy a motorcycle but he couldn't afford it so he got a bicycle.

• intend (v) intention (n)

3.108 release (n)

the act of freeing

απελευθέρωση, έκλυση

Exercise aids the release of stress.

• release (v)

3.109 impress (v)

make sb admire sth

εντυπωσιάζω

His expensive car impressed all his friends.

• impression (n)

3.110 convince (v)

make sb want to do sth

πείθω

He convinced me to go on vacation with him by offering to book everything.

• convincing (adj)

3.111 assist (v)

help

βοηθώ

John assisted his grandmother by carrying her heavy suitcase.

• assistance (n)

3.112 version (n)

description

εκδοχή

Kim's version of the robbery is not the same as mine as she was actually inside the bank.

3.113 guess (n)

opinion based on little information

εικασία, υπόθεση

I don't know the whole story, but my guess is that she found a new job before leaving this one.

• guess (v)

3.114 direct (v)
give instructions κατευθύνω
The police officer directed the traffic as the lights were not working.
• direction (n)

3.115 present (v)
show and explain παρουσιάζω
She presented her report to the head, who listened carefully.
• presentation (n)

3.116 deliver (v)
take somewhere παραδίδω
The letter was delivered by post this morning.
• delivery (n)

3.117 connect (v)
join, get a signal συνδέομαι
You can connect to the Internet at this cafe.
• connection (n)

3.118 refer (v)
get information from ανατρέχω
If you refer to the grammar section, you will find more information to assist you.
• reference (n)

3.119 locate (v)
find a place
εντοπίζω
I found it hard to locate her house as there were no numbers on the buildings.
• location (n)

3.120 check (v)
make sure sth is correct ελέγχω
I checked my math problems were right before handing them in.
• check (n)

3.121 discouraged (adj) having lost hope αποθαρρυμένος
She felt discouraged after failing her driving again and didn't think she would ever pass.
• discourage (v), encouraged (ant)

3.122 blamed (adj)
considered guilty or responsible κατηγορούμενος
He felt blamed for the accident even though it wasn't his fault.
• blame (v, n)

3.123 offended (adj)
upset because sb is rude to you προσβεβλημένος
Kenny felt offended when she said his hair looked awful.
• offend (v)

3.124 comment (n)
sth you say σχόλιο
When he made a comment about the movie, we told him to keep quiet.
• comment (v)

3.125 insult (n)
rude opinion προσβολή
Calling her stupid is an insult and you should say sorry.
• insult (v)

3.126 argument (n)
disagreement διαφωνία
The brothers had an argument about who won the game as they couldn't agree on the rules.
• argue (v), argumentative (adj)

3.127 obstacle (n)
sth in your way
εμπόδιο
Having no money for college was an obstacle he overcame by working while he studied.

3.128 accommodate (v)
provide a place to stay στεγάζω, εξυπηρετώ
This cruise ship can accommodate two thousand passengers.
• accommodation (n)

3.129 lack (v)
not have έχω έλλειψη, μου λείπει
She lacks respect and is often offensive to people.
• lack (n)

3.130 discipline (n)
control πειθαρχία
Having good discipline helps him review for exams in an organized way.
• discipline (v)

3.131 fascination (n)
great interest γοητεία
Her fascination with history led her to become an archeologist.
• fascinate (v)

3.132 cooperation (n)
the act of working well together
συνεργασία
With everyone's cooperation we managed to quickly finish the party preparations.
• cooperate (v), cooperative (adj)

3.133 direct (adj)
being honest about what you think ευθύς
Being a direct person, he said her new haircut did not suit her.

3.134 discreet (adj)
careful not to say anything that might cause trouble διακριτικός
He saw that she looked depressed but was too discreet to ask why.
• discretion (n)

3.135 abrupt (adj)
rather rude απότομος
The abrupt man in the queue shouted rudely at the bank clerk for being slow.

3.136 pay attention (phr)
listen
προσέχω, δίνω προσοχή
He didn't pay attention in class so he had no idea what his homework was.

3.137 campaign (n)
organized activities to persuade people καμπάνια
The political party's campaign included TV broadcasts, meetings and speeches.
• campaign (v)

3.138 commercial (n)
advertisement (on TV or radio)
διαφήμιση (τηλεοπτική/ραδιοφωνική)
During soccer matches, there are usually TV commercials advertising cars.

3.139 profile (n)
personal description προφίλ
I read an interesting profile of Sakis Rouvas that talked about how he started out on his career.

READING, Questions 75-80

3.140 nap (n)
very short sleep
υπνάκος
After a ten minute nap, he woke up refreshed.

3.141 snooze (n)
short sleep
υπνάκος
Grandpa tries to watch TV, but he always ends up falling asleep and having a snooze when it's on.
• snooze (v)