

Second conditional

6 Read the sentences and study the rule.

If I was a famous football player, I'd be very rich.

She wouldn't be happy if she moved to another town.

Study rule

rule

We use the past simple in the if-clause and would (or the short form 'd) in the main clause.

7
HW

7 Complete the text. Use the correct form of the second conditional.

If I (win) won a million pounds, I (travel) 'd travel around the world. If I (1 be) in the desert, I (2 ride) a camel. If I (3 go) to the jungle, I (4 look) for snakes! If I (5 move) to Africa, I (6 ask) my family to come too.

If I (7 have) that amount of money, I (8 give) a lot to charities that save wildlife. If I (9 not live) in England, I (10 not go) to school. However I (11 learn) a lot if I (12 visit) a lot of interesting places.