Adam

Are you interested in photography but can't afford to buy a new camera? Well, this camera is a real bargain! It's light, easy to use and it comes with a 35 mm lens. You can have the photos printed or you can connect your camera to your computer, save them or upload them for your friends to see. You can buy it for £50 and I can have it delivered to your house in 24 hours.

Would you like to buy fashionable trainers and help us raise money for charity at the same time? My classmates and I are selling twenty pairs of hand-painted trainers. They've got flower designs, heart shapes and stars. They are sizes 36, 37 and 38. They're only £30 a pair and you'll get a free T-shirt with them! Hurry up! Order now!

Mikey

Have you got a skateboard in good condition that you would like to sell? I'm looking for a second-hand skateboard with a graffiti style design or images of well-known action heroes. I'm also interested in buying a safety helmet and matching knee and elbow pads. I can afford to pay up to £80 in total. Get in touch!

Stephen

I'm a collector of comics and I'm looking for old Superboy comic books. Have any of you got The Adventures of Superboy? I've got all the issues of this comic book from 2001 to 2006, but I haven't got any from 2000. Do you happen to have any of them? Can you ask your dad or older brother? I can afford to pay up to £20 for each issue. My collection will not be complete without them!
